Jim Boeven grew up in Cologne, Germany where he started his acting career and starred in a multitude of TV productions and feature films. He was the series lead on 4 international selling TV series, including the german version of "TOP GUN" as a series (JETS, LIVING ON THE EDGE). Appearances in HARTS WAR (with Bruce Willis and Colin Farrell, directed by Gregory Hoblitt), TORSO (alongside Victor Garber and Kathleen Robertson, directed by Alex Chapple) and THE WANDERING SOUL MURDERS (with Wendy Crewson, Robin Dunne, Chynithia Gibb, directed by Brad Turner) expanded his range further into international and english speaking productions. By now a well traveled actor, Jim Boeven has worked in 12 countries other than Germany and the USA, as well as in 3 languages. His first Bollywood experience , RANG RASIYA (Colors of Passion) is an upcoming Indian Feature Film based on the life of the 19th century Indian painter Raja Ravi Varma . The film, which is directed and produced by Ketan Mehta, stars Randeep Hooda, Nandana Sen and Jim Boeven. It is a bilingual movie, shot in both English and Hindi.

Most recently Jim Boeven starred in THE CANYONS, directed by Paul Schrader, written by Bret Easton Ellis, produced by Braxton Pope, which he booked through an open casting on Letitcast.com.□

Jim Boeven currently resides and works both in Los Angeles and in Germany.
